The results were communicated to the Head Pandit and the five Candidates.

The Head Pandit reported that of the passed candidates only one — D Sampath Iyengar was willing to join

This Candidate applied directly to me for a Copy of the Govt order, if any, defining the prospects of the men who passed and join the College. He was told that there was no such order

The Head Pandit now reports that even D. Sampath Iyengar has signified his unwillingness to join this Institution

There is only one person (and he has

Last year when I was present on the day of opening of the College it was with great difficulty that the Candidates were induced to join. They wanted to know what their prospects were before spending four years in the College. They were told that there were no orders depriving their prospects but that if they worked well, good might be their fate. Then they joined

If Govt will say that after passing the final examination the papers will be sent in charge of Vaidyanadan what the pay & prospects of Hospital Assistants may join the College the prospects of Hospital Assistants will be altogether deserved by these men. They will certainly be superior in some respects to them, and will hardly have the opportunity for improvement that the Hospl Asstts will have.

I would have them in 2 or 3 grades - 15, 25 40 or 80, and promise employment whenever we have need for their services. I think it hardly worth while to open a class for a single Student who may also fall off eventually.

It is a question whether any definite prospects should be held out to these men. Of course they will be appointed to the charge of ayurvedic dispensaries (or Vaidyasalas) when there are vacancies. The idea of instituting a scale of pay similar to that of Hospital assistants and guaranteeing Govt appointments should be seriously thought of. The passed men must look to the public for support. There is plenty of demand for such men in all places.

Having regard to the present advanced State of European system of medical science in which the Hospital Assistants (Sub-Asst. Surgeons) are being well trained it is inadvisable to put these Vaidyans and Hakeems on a par with them.

At the same time it is not to be expected that young men will consent to be trained in Indigenous medical science as now taught at Mysore without some prospect of getting certain livelihood after they pass out.

I would propose a scale of Rs. 15. 20 & 25 p.m. to these Ayurvedic trained candidates and post them to out of the way Villages like Chelur in the Kolar District and Sagara in the Mysore District and so where as things are obtain the services of our trained medical inhabitants are now practically wasted.

Especially would I recommend the above-suggestion to adoption as we are very badly short handed in the matter of Sub-Assist Surgeons and every useful man from all of the busy & insignificant Villages may be shifted to a place where his services would be of immense greater use & benefit to a larger number of people.

Promotion from the lowest class to the next higher to be by a time scale of seven years in each class.
